PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Anne & I travelled to Warrnambool along with dancers from Acey Squares, Dance Around and Pine City Twirlers to attend the 54th Vic State Convention. Thank you the SA Dancers who supported this function It was a very hot weekend, plenty of square dancing and a couple decent round dance sessions. I am just glad I got programmed for a singing call Sunday night because everyone was dressed to theme Hi Vis. Unfortunately the Convenor of the 55th was not able to disclose the location due problems securing a venue in time, I have no doubt they will sort it out. We took 30 Registration forms for our convention and only came home with 6, so here's hoping for a good response from Victoria.

Speaking of our Convention we are now less than 3 months away. The Caller Registrations close 17 April (the Thursday before Easter). Meal registrations close 16 May. (See this edition for more details).

I have also received comments that people have checked out the way to Blackwood is via Belair Road. This is a very windy option. There is no reason to go this way. Shepherds Hill Road is a much safer and less stressful way (2 lanes each way divided just like a normal suburban arterial road). Going by public transport Blackwood Station is only 5 minutes walk from the venue. We look forward to receiving your Registration.

Congratulations to Digger's Delight's on your 6th Birthday hope to see you all there.

Regards. Les Tulloch

REGISTRATION FORMS AVAILABLE VIA YOUR CLUB OR THE WEBSITE

State Convention Scribblings

The committee is thrilled to see that about 90 registration forms have been collected by interested dancers. If every one of those were returned with one or two dancer registrations (or more), we would be thrilled. If you have mislaid your hardcopy or inadvertently deleted your registration softcopy included with your March Roundup, did you know you can download another copy via the Society website? We will also distribute more hard copies via your club. Don't leave it too late to book your catered dinner (meal bookings close 16 May).

What does the weekend have instore for you? Here's a glimpse of our Program at a Glance. We hope there is something for everyone!

Session 7: Sunday	2.30pm-4.30pm	Mainstream & Plus

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

As summer heat lingers a little longer, we've been keeping our minds off the weather by enjoying some great dancing and wonderful company.

Our most recent theme was St Patrick's in March. We began with a spud feast from Ivy's kitchen at the RSL. Some decent sized praties I must say and very tasty. Then we did what we do best - enjoy our dancing.

A sea of green outfits looked absolutely grand and all set to some very lively Irish music. Thanks to all who came along and made the atmosphere so vibrant. Learners and Mainstream dancers all joining in for a lively night.

We'll soon be holding our Easter Dance and look forward to sharing hot cross buns & chocolates and seeing everyone in bright festive colours.

Mothers Day then comes around in May - see the flyer for details.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS ST PATRICK'S NIGHT 2025

Thanks to all and to Colin and Rachel who visited from Victoria.

A few important reminders for the month ahead.

The club will be closed on the Fridays of the 28th of March and the 18th of April. All are invited our Easter Dance on Friday the 4th of April.

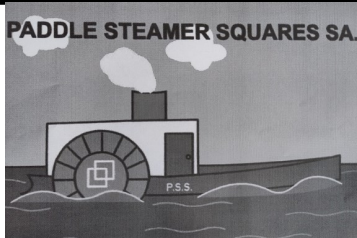

See you in a square.

Welcome to our newsletter.

Our Valentine's Day Dance was a happy and pink event, with lots of yummy supper made, a big thank you to Jackie for cake display and John Casey for his Professional calling. All the committee for there hard work in the background.

Our Learners group is progressing along, with John teaching them all the correct moves.

Easter Dance is on the 11 th of April as the club is closed on Good Friday, and is Open on Anzac Day at 7 pm. Mums day dance is on 8 th of May.

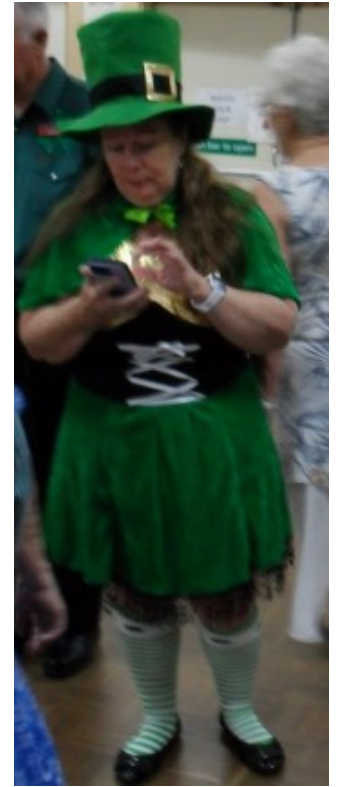

See you all in a Square. Paddle steamer square dance group, Victor Harbour

We had a visit from Diane of Maryborough, Qld, who dances at Hervey Bay.

Les Tulloch also visited to promote State Convention. He did a day-time call - a novelty for him so early in his retirement. Some dancers were away as they headed to Warrnambool for the Victorian Convention. With less people, one square danced with a phantom. Well done to the learners in that square. There was lots of green for our St Patrick's Day dance, and a lot of work had gone into table decorations, shamrocks of jokes, and more. Not surprisingly, we heard more Irish music than usual.

The visiting leprechaun is up with modern technology!!
[Photograph: person in full dress up]

A few of our members attended the recent Victorian Convention at Warrnambool and enjoyed the dancing and dressing up for the themed night. Our AGM was held in March where the new Committee was elected to guide the Club in its 42 year.

Best wishes to Jack in his recovery after a hip operation.

Happy twirling. Linley.
